

HAPPY EMPLOYEES MAKE WORK A GREAT PLACE TO BE!

Monroe Community Credit Union is proud to announce its certification as a 2024 Great Place To Work. This significant recognition is based entirely on feedback from MCCU's current employees, highlighting their satisfaction with MCCU's values, leadership, and overall work environment.

Great Place To Work® is a global authority on workplace culture and employee experience. MCCU's certification underscores its commitment to fostering a positive and inclusive workplace culture for its team members.

Kristine Brenner, President/CEO of MCCU, expressed gratitude for the team's contributions in earning this recognition. She emphasized MCCU's dedication to creating an environment where every team member feels valued, supported, and empowered to succeed.

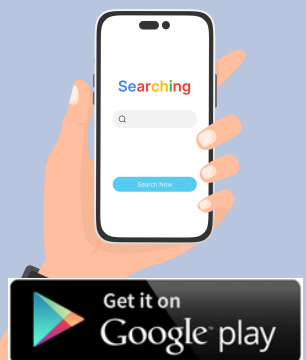

Certified organizations like MCCU are known for attracting top talent and offering opportunities for career growth and development. MCCU's Great Place To Work Certification™ reflects its ongoing efforts to prioritize employee satisfaction and well-being.

Team Member Shoutout

Kate Hall

Kate Hall, a vital part of Monroe Community Credit Union's executive team, has been awarded the prestigious title of 2023 Young Professional of the Year by the Michigan Credit Union League. This statewide recognition applauds Kate's outstanding leadership, steadfast dedication to community service, and substantial impact on MCCU's achievements. As the first recipient from Monroe County, Kate exemplifies MCCU's commitment to excellence and community engagement.

Congratulations, Kate!
